The FSPO is part of the international Financial dispute resolution network FIN-NET (<https://ec.europa.eu/>) and can bring the client into contact with the local equivalent of the FSPO.

Compensation Scheme

Term Deposits in the Bank are guaranteed by the statutory deposit guarantee scheme, Entschädigungseinrichtung deutscher Banken (“EdB”), in Germany. Pursuant Section 23a (1) sentence 3 of the German Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz [KWG]), full payment is guaranteed for deposits in Euro and in foreign currency, together with the interest accrued on them, up to the maximum amount of € 100,000 (or the equivalent) per depositor per bank, regardless of the number of the depositor’s bank accounts, the amount of funds and the currency.

In Case of Default

Where you default in your obligations to Raisin Bank AG, the Bank may notify you of such default and may ask you to take action to remedy it to the satisfaction of the Bank. At any time after such default the Bank may seek to enforce your obligations to it through legal proceedings or through the enforcement of any guarantee or security given in respect of your obligations to the Bank.

Changes to Terms of Business

The Bank is free to change these Terms of Business at any point in time unilaterally. The Bank will inform the customers at least 2 months prior to any change in text form via the Internet Platform. Should the customers not raise objections to the changes in Terms of Business before they become effective it will be considered as an acceptance of the new version. In case a customer does not accept the changes, both the customer and the Bank will have the right to terminate the agreement unilaterally without any additional cost.

Effective Date

These Terms of Business are effective from: 01/09/2019
